

The Federal Communications Commission

Dear The Federal Communications Commission,

I cannot afford the flat fee tax that you are proposing for local and cellular phone services. I'm already on prepaid wireless because I cannot afford "regular" cellular phone service. With "pay as you go", I can buy just the amount of minutes I need for times when an emergency arises.

As a single parent, who has NEVER received child support from my ex-husband (the government allows men to legally disown their own flesh and blood to avoid child support payments), I cannot afford another rate hike in ANYTHING. Having children, I need phone service for emergencies, and my prepaid wireless in the event of a flat tire, etc.

This rate hike is unfair and I want to add my name to protest it.

Sincerely, Renee Timpeiro
